

Survey Results

John Thompson with the Times Journal and the Russell County News Register held a survey for the citizens of Russell Springs to gauge their interest in the legalization of alcohol sales on Sunday within the city limits of Russell Springs. The survey began on Friday September 1st and ended on Friday September 8th. All results were verified by Mayor Eric Selby, Councilwoman Sherry Daniel, Councilmen David Blakey, and John Thompson with the Russell County News Papers with a 10% percent margin for error. The results are as follows:

Yes, to legalize the sale of alcohol on Sunday 160 (83.77%)

No, to legalize the sale of alcohol on Sunday 31 (16.23%)

This was only a survey, the city council members will have the 2nd reading and vote on the Sunday alcohol sales ordinance Thursday September 14th at the regular monthly at 6:00 p.m. at Russell Springs City Hall.
